Jamila Blouh received her B.A. in Islamic studies in 1989. She joined the CCCL in 2013 and teaches both Darija and Fus'ha.

Jamila loves her work as a teacher. Along with her work as a language instructor, she also teaches embroidery and handicrafts. Since childhood, Jamila has aspired to teach. While living in Japan, Jamila found a way to pursue this goal and has been teaching ever since. Jamila loves the sense of family amongst staff at the CCCL and the community.
