

Road Scholar Morocco: Melting Pot of Cultures, October 2017

Written by Rajae

Wednesday, 27 September 2017 12:27 -

The Center for Cross Cultural Learning (CCCL) welcomes its first Road Scholar program for the fall 2017. It starts from the 1st to 16th of October. The program will be variously pageant of different lectures and field trips around Morocco. Its main objective is to reflect on how Morocco is a melting pot of cultures. During this period, different lectures will be tackled, including Islam in Morocco, Moroccan politics, architecture and other topics, along with bus lectures. The program will be also hosting divert Moroccan musical performances